

Memorandum of Understanding for an American Gastroenterological Association (AGA) Institute and Sociedad Argentina de Gastroenterología (SAGE) Joint Symposium at the Curso Internacional de Otoño 2018

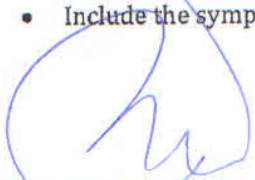

The American Gastroenterological Association Institute (hereinafter referred to as AGA) and the Sociedad Argentina de Gastroenterología (SAGE) agree to jointly sponsor a symposium during Curso Internacional de Otoño, which will be held in Buenos Aires City, Argentina on April 12-13, 2018.

In accordance with this agreement, AGA will:

- Identify two (2) speakers to work with the SAGE course director. AGA speakers will be members in good standing.
- Publicize the symposium and the Curso Internacional de Otoño via AGA e-Digest and on the AGA web site.
- Provide SAGE with an AGA logo to be used in marketing materials.

In accordance with this agreement, SAGE will:

- Handle all meeting logistics, including contacting AGA speakers.
- Pay for air travel for two (2) speakers to attend Curso Internacional de Otoño (economy class fare with possibilities of upgrading).
- Provide up to four (4) nights hotel accommodations, ground transportation, meeting registration and meals for two (2) AGA speakers.
- Provide AGA and its speakers with necessary details relating to the symposium schedule, social activities, and any other deadlines or pertinent information related to the course.
- Provide AGA with the attendance records and evaluation summaries upon the completion of the symposium.
- Obtain AGA written authorization prior to distributing any promotional material that includes AGA's name and/or logo.
- Include the symposium in promotional materials for the Curso Internacional de Otoño.

Sonia Niveloni, MD
SAGE President

8-7-17
Date

Nancy Chill
AGA Institute Vice President, Education & Training

8/4/2017
Date